Biographical Sketch

Dan Rice is the Philanthropy Architect of the Educational Media Foundation, the world's largest Christian music broadcaster and parent organization of the listener supported K-LOVE and Air1 radio networks. Dan is also the Vice President of the K-LOVE & Air1 Foundation, which supports EMF. Dan coaches philanthropists, solicits principal gifts and conducts charitable gift and estate planning.

Previously, Dan was the Senior Philanthropic Advisor in the Principal Gifts department for World Vision, Inc., the largest privately funded Christian relief and development agency in the world. He was also World Vision's National Director for Gift Planning, during the 26 years he served World Vision. While at World Vision, Dan designed philanthropic financial and estate plans, offered charitable gift planning consulting and conducted philanthropy coaching. He also co-authored the Family Philanthropy Guidebook.

Dan is also a co-founder and Chairman of Charitable Trust Administration Company, a third party charitable trust and foundation administration services corporation.

Dan serves on the board of the Morgan Stanley Smith Barney Global Impact Funding Trust. He is a member of the Partnership for Philanthropic Planning, the Association of Fundraising Professionals, the Planned Giving Forum of Sacramento and formerly served on the advisory committee for the Chair of Philanthropy at The American College.

Since 1980, Dan has actively consulted with highly successful individuals and families, working in tandem with their team of professional advisors and is nationally recognized as a humorous and informative communicator on philanthropic planning.
